PRACTICE AREAS

- Family Law

Isabella is a knowledgeable family law lawyer and a fearless advocate. She offers a common sense approach while driving issues towards a timely, cost-efficient and beneficial resolution for her clients. Isabella advocates passionately on behalf of her clients, and also appreciates the advantages of alternative dispute resolution - attempting to resolve disputes through negotiation and/or mediation whenever possible.

Isabella's growing family law practice focuses on all areas of family law, including child support, child custody and access, spousal support and matrimonial property disputes. She has experience in complex family law disputes and excels in financial matters focusing on developing solutions for her clients to ensure future financial security for the family.

Isabella believes that accessibility and transparency are essential in family law, and she ensures that her clients understand their rights and obligations to successfully protect their future. She is compassionate and listens carefully to her clients' needs, creating an environment where her clients are confident that their family law matter is in capable and knowledgeable hands.

Isabella persuasively advocates on behalf of clients at mediations, arbitrations, the Ontario Court of Justice and the Superior Court of Justice. She also advises and assists clients in the negotiation and preparation of Separation Agreements, Marriage Contracts and Cohabitation Agreements.

Isabella has been appointed as a Member-at-Large of the Advocates' Society Family Law Practice Group for the 2019/2020 year.
