EDUCATION

- J.D., University of Western Ontario, 2012
- B.A., University of Western Ontario, 2009

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Litigation
- Restructuring & Insolvency

A keen problem-solver equipped with business acumen, Alexandra helps clients navigate the complexities of the legal system and develops tailor-made strategies to meet their business needs.

Alexandra is a resourceful and pragmatic litigator who provides her clients with creative and cost-efficient solutions to their legal problems. She works with clients to comprehensively understand both their current concerns as well as their long-term objectives.

Alexandra is a dynamic and astute advocate who also understands that victories can also be won outside of the courtroom.

Alexandra's practice focuses on commercial litigation and insolvency, including restructurings under the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act and bankruptcies and proposals under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act. She regularly advises and represents clients with respect to contractual disputes, creditors' rights, construction matters, and enforcement proceedings at both the trial and appellate level.

EXPERIENCE

- Engineers Canada/Engenieurs Canada v. MMI-IPCO, LLC, 2015 FC 839, 255 ACWS (3d) 721 Trade-Marks Opposition Board, Canadian Intellectual Property Office \(July 9, 2015\). Decision of the Federal Court arising from an appeal from the Trademarks Opposition Board, which held that POLARTEC

ECO-ENGINEERING was registrable. Appellant sought a decision from the Federal Court to overturn the Board's decision. The respondent withdrew the application and succeeded on the issue of mootness.
