PRACTICE AREAS

- Family Law

With a background in psychology, Judy understands the complex dynamics of a family, and is skilled in dealing with high conflict cases. Judy's clients appreciate her ability to treat them with compassion and understanding, while at the same time relentlessly advocating on their behalf. Judy is fiercely dedicated to obtaining the right results and choosing the right process for her clients, whether it is court, negotiation, mediation, arbitration or collaborative family law.

For over 20 years, Judy has been providing prompt, sensitive and effective service for her clients. With dedication, common sense, and a creative approach to the resolution of family law disputes, Judy helps her clients achieve their goals efficiently. She understands her clients' needs and ensures that they are met.

Judy's practice encompasses all areas of family law including property division and disputes, tax, complex income and support issues, corporate issues and parenting. Judy regularly appears before all levels of court in Ontario.
