- B.A. (Honours), Carleton University, 2019

PRACTICE AREAS

- Commercial Real Estate
- Corporate & Commercial

Mona is developing a broad practice in all areas of commercial real estate and corporate law, with a focus on clients involved in a range of commercial real estate and corporate acquisitions and financings.

Mona brings a strong business acumen as well as a unique perspective with her ability to address client issues from both a legal and commercial viability perspective. Clients rely on her attention to detail, professionalism, strong communication and problem-solving skills.

In law school, Mona was very active. She participated in competitive moots and worked with students as a Legal Writing Leader, with professors as a Technology Fellow, and for the former Dean as a Research Assistant for an upcoming book on the Canadian legal profession. She continues her involvement as an Assistant Coach for the Corporate Securities moot team.
