Blaneys Recognized With Two Thought Leadership Awards

Date: November 08, 2023

Blaneys was recognized with two Thought Leadership Awards by Mondaq, a syndication platform that aggregates thought leadership insights from professional services firms. The awards are given to authors that contributed one of the top three most-read articles in Canada for that subject area in the past six months.

Christopher McClelland and Sarah Mills are the recipients of the Employment and HR award for their article, Employment Update: Ontario Introduces Bill 79, The Working For Workers Act, 2023

Anna Casemore and Anthony Gatensby were the recipients of the Real Estate and Construction award for their article, Follow The Rules: A Useful Application Of The Rules Of Policy Interpretation In The Context Of A Canadian COVID-19 Business-interruption Claim

Congratulations to all the winners!

PEOPLE

- Anna Casemore
- Anthony Gatensby
- Christopher McClelland
- Sarah Mills