Blaney McMurtry Lawyers Recognized in Lexpert Special Edition: Litigation 2025

Date: November 20, 2025

Blaney McMurtry LLP is pleased to announce that partners Timothy Alexander, W. Colin Empke, Anthony Gatensby, and Jason Mangano have been named among Canada's leading litigators in the Lexpert Special Edition: Litigation 2025.

Published as a national digital special edition on November 20, 2025, and distributed in association with The Globe and Mail, the Lexpert Special Edition: Litigation profiles top-performing practitioners in business-related litigation and alternative dispute resolution across Canada, based on extensive peer review. It also features editorial coverage on emerging issues such as AI in dispute resolution, class action trends, and ongoing reforms in the courts.

Tim, Colin, Anthony, and Jason are longstanding members of Blaney McMurtry's Litigation & Advocacy group and are widely recognized for their work in insurance coverage, insurance litigation, complex commercial disputes, and class actions, regularly appearing before courts at all levels in Ontario and across Canada.

Founded and based in Toronto's financial district, Blaney McMurtry is a Top 10 regional firm with more than 125 lawyers and leading practices in litigation & advocacy, commercial real estate, insurance law, business law, and more. We have refined our approach, methods and the processes we developed over seven decades of serving clients with very high expectations and we've applied the best of them throughout our whole firm. We practice in an efficient manner and in doing so we create real value for all our clients. Our clients reward our work with their loyalty.

The firm is consistently recognized in Best Law Firms Canada, Chambers Canada, Best Lawyers in Canada, and the Canadian Legal Lexpert Directory for its strength across core practice areas and its practical, business-minded approach to dispute resolution.
