A Holiday Message from our Managing Partner, Shawn Wolfson

Date: December 19, 2025

As we approach the end of the year, I want to take a moment to express my sincere gratitude to our clients, colleagues and friends of the firm. This year has reminded us of the impact we can make when we work together, delivering results that reflect the strength and character of Blaney McMurtry. None of it would be possible without the trust you place in us and the dedication of our teams who show up every day with skill, care and a commitment to doing things the right way.

Over the past year, we continued to build on our strengths, expand key practice areas, and support our clients through complex matters across many industries. We also deepened our commitment to community, highlighted by our new partnership with SickKids Foundation; an initiative that reflects the values we stand behind as a firm. Through litigation, advisory work and everyday collaboration, our teams have shown the professionalism, care and character that define who we are.

As we look ahead, 2026 promises to be an exciting chapter. We are preparing for new developments that will enhance the way we serve our clients and support our people, with initiatives focused on innovation and long-term growth, including a move to Scotia Plaza in completely redesigned and reimagined space. We look forward to sharing more about these changes in the new year.

On behalf of everyone at Blaney McMurtry, I wish you a warm and restful holiday season and a happy new year. Thank you for your continued trust and partnership. We look forward to all that we will accomplish together in 2026.

Warm regards,
Shawn Wolfson
Managing Partner, Blaney McMurtry LLP
